Which one of these people was recently pregnant?

It may not be obvious, but knowing could help save a life.

Life-threatening complications can happen up to a year after pregnancy.

Ask your patient if they are pregnant or have been pregnant in the last year.
