

Dental sealants can prevent cavities when applied to molar teeth.

School-based programs are one way to reach millions of children with sealants to prevent cavities.